

THE GUNNERY DETECTIVE – MARCH 2009 ANSWER

We received many responses to last month's Gunnery detective question. Thank you to all who responded. Comments, send them to Paula Krinsky (krinskyp@gunnery.org)

- 1) The photo was taken in the paper dorms – just look at the walls. Peter Feen '99
- 2) I don't know the whole thing but I 'think' I can add some info. The middle person appears to be Panu (Nook) Puntoomsinchai and the background person Andrew Eckstein. The picture is so small it's hard to tell much more. The foreground person could be Peter Herrick or Bill Chase. I would discount Bill Chase though as the picture person did not appear to be losing their hair at the time. This would have been taken during my Senior year (Eckstein was freshman), so between fall '88 and spring '89. John Hensel '89
- 3) Josiah "Jake" Jones ('93) in the background, my "little brother" in 89-90. Panu "Nook" Pantoomsinchai ('90) middle, my roommate in 87-88. Man in foreground... I think was a visiting faculty (Michael? Something...). I think this was an art installation to explore spaces. Picture was taken in 1990. Dave King '90
- 4) I'm guessing that the person the photo is focused on is Ian Cohn (alum and parent) and that he is teaching the architecture class that he taught here once, I think in the early 90s. Bill Chase, former faculty.
- 5) Looks like Barry Lee, Tom Turrentine and John Greenwood. But what do I know. Edgar Garin '71
